Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1 and 2 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Terranova et al., US 5,704,948 for the reasons of record in the previous office action.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including base claim and any intervening

4. Applicant's arguments are not persuasive. Applicant immediately envisaged by the because, in the view of the examiners, the compound is useful, coupled with a specific compound, is to make the claim obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art.

Applicant argues that the reference teaches that the nature of the oxidation base is not critical, and that this constitutes a teaching away from the specific class of compounds claimed. This is not persuasive because there is no teaching specific enough or negative enough to constitute a negative teaching. In fact, it is a teaching of a broad expectation of success among all of the compounds disclosed in the reference. Applicant argues that the hair dyeing art is unpredictable. This is not persuasive because the reference gives a teaching of a broad expectation of success. Optimizing the amount of an oxidation base that is required to dye hair, and predetermination of the color to be expected from its use are ordinary expedients and expected duties of the person of ordinary skill in the hair dyeing art. The existence of qualitative differences among a class of compounds, all of which are taught as useful, does not constitute unpredictability.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
